

The Mission of Koehler & Dramm's Tony Sciortino Scholarship is to promote and encourage those who desire to become a professional florist in beginning or continuing their education.

Its purpose is to help those starting out and those seeking a higher elevation in the floral industry and provide them with a way to learn and gain necessary experience that will help them pursue their career in the floral industry.

The criteria of this scholarship is a passion for flowers, for learning, for sharing and developing those skills applicable to the floral industry.

This scholarship will provide the recipient with one class that must be used for any one design class from the Koehler & Dramm Institute of Floristry.

This scholarship must be used before the one year mark of the award. It is not transferable or eligible for use in any other manner.

Applications must be in by December 31st of each year. The Tony Sciortino Scholarship will be awarded annually at the January program in memory of Tony Sciortino.

Application Process

Please describe, on a separate piece of paper, why you want to receive the Tony Sciortino Scholarship for education and why you feel you deserve it. Please describe how it would help you achieve your floral industry goals.

This scholarship is awarded based on your potential future development in the floral industry.

Please type or print clearly so your essay may be properly evaluated by the Scholarship Committee. Please limit your response to one page. At the bottom of your essay, please include your name, address, phone number/cell phone number and e-mail address.

Please mail your essay to Koehler & Dramm Wholesale Florist, Attention: Tony Sciortino Scholarship, 2407 East Hennepin Avenue, Minneapolis, MN 55413. They cannot be postmarked any later than December 31st.